Seattle, Wa— Intimidated by Shakespeare? Do you ever think "I am not really sure what they are saying..."? Wing-It Productions has Shakespeare for the masses! Wing-It Productions is proud to present the return of its hit improvised comedy from 2010--fresh from performances at the Outdoor Shakespeare Festival and Bumber--a comedy of Shakespearian proportions, The Lost Folio.

The Lost Folio is a full length improvised parody of Shakespeare. A traveling band of gypsy players collect suggestions from the audience in order to create a new work in the style of Shakespeare. The result is a smart, funny and bawdy show that you will never forget. Each performance the cast will create completely unique plots and characters. No two performances are the same.

The Lost Folio is directed by Andrew McMasters (Artistic Director of Wing-It Productions and director of PROJECT: B-Movie as well as Rudolph: The Next Verse). It features an all star cast of Seattle's premiere improvisers: Phill Arensberg, Mike Christensen, Kyle Kizzier, Ryan Miller, Laura Turner, Ian Schempp and Elicia Wickstead. Costumes are by Jeannine Clarke.

The Lost Folio performances will be held at 8pm on Thursdays and Fridays January 5th-20th and February 2nd-10th at Wing-It Productions at 5510 University Way Ne. Tickets are $14 and $10 for students, seniors and military.
