

Season 2012 PR Fact Sheet

- What: Wing-It Productions' 2012 Season
- When: 8pm Shows, Thursdays and Fridays January 1, 2012-December 31, 2012
- Who: Season 2012 Line-up:

The Lost Folio ---January/February

Directed by Andrew McMasters

An improvised comedy of Shakespearean proportions. A new improvised Shakespeare play every night, based on audience suggestions.

The 10th Annual Seattle Festival of Improv Theater—Feb 15-20th

The Nation's best improv comedy festival.

Epic Masala—March

Directed by Douglas Willott and Tarang Mittal.

A Hindu Musical Comedy. A beautiful and funny show celebrating Hindu culture.

Gauntlet—May

Directed by Andrew McMasters

An interactive video game comedy. In partnership with Microsoft, Gauntlet will use real time avatars and audience suggestions to create the plot and characters of the show, allowing audience members to interact with the main characters.

Zombie Town—July

Directed by Mike Christensen

An improvised zombie comedy. A small group of people are trapped inside a quarantined city. Their survival depends on working together. Danger, romance and comedy result.

Election Show—September/October/November

Directed by Douglas Willott and John Boyle

The return of Wing-It's acclaimed political comedy. Election Show uses issues and campaign platforms supplied by the audience.

It's Your Wonderful Life—November/December

Directed by Phill Arensberg

Based on the classic film, “It’s a Wonderful Life”, the show replaces the tale of everyman, George Bailey, with the life story of a different audience volunteer every night, showcasing a new wonderful life.

Where: Wing-It Productions, 5510 University Way Ne

Tickets: $14 for adults
$10 for students / seniors / military
All tickets can be purchased at www.wingitpresents.com/tickets

Press comps available by request. Please email Jeannine Clarke at jeannine@jetcityimprov.com to request.

Contact: Jeannine Clarke, Marketing Director
jeannine@jetcityimprov.com
(206) 352-8291

Photos: www.wingitpresents.com

Wing-It Productions
Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/wingitproductions>
Twitter: @wingitproductions